For Hong Kong Ballet's (HK Ballet) first ever collaboration with Hong Kong Art Gallery Association (HKAGA) for Hong Kong Art Week's (HK Art Week) "The Gallery Walk for Charity", HK Ballet's new Artistic Director Septime Webre and the Artists of HK Ballet enliven Hong Kong's dynamic gallery district with a series of intriguing performances and activations of 10 HKAGA member galleries, a Ballet Barre installation outside 10 Chancery Lane Gallery, and the finale at the Peroni Pop-Up Bar at Soho 189 Art Lane. The evening features original choreography by Fei Bo, Yuh Egami, Hu Song Wei Ricky, Luis Cabrera and Forrest Oliveros.

The evening kicks off with Desire, a two-part work inspired by human desire, with the first movement - a female solo - performed at Galerie du Monde, and the second movement - a pas de deux - both by Hu Song Wei Ricky, shown at Hanart TZ Gallery, in the Pedder Building.

A little further, at the check-in station 1 LKF, the men of HK Ballet noodle their way through the witty Beatles Box, by Yuh Egami, an athletic romp set to the music of the Fab Four, while the Feibo Duet introduces extracts from "Shenren Chang" at Alisan Fine Arts (Central).

Halfway along the route, the Four Little Swans from the legendary masterwork Swan Lake emerge from the crowd at Galerie Ora-Ora, leading on to Chair Dances 1 & 2, short and explosive original creations by Luis Cabrera and Hu Song Wei Ricky, involving three dancers and three chairs, which are shown at La Galerie and Contemporary by Angela Li.

At Gallery 3812, Forrest Oliveros and Lai Nok Sze Vanessa perform a sensual semi-improvisational Parameter +1, while the third vigorous Chair Dance Series by Yuh Egami activates Puerta Roja at Soho 189 Art Lane.

Beatles Boxes by Yuh Egami and Hu Song Wei Ricky serves as a grand finale in rock-and-roll style at the Soho 189 Art Lane.
